

C-MAC Days 2012

10 – 13 December 2012

KRAKÓW, POLAND

Dear Colleagues,

C-MAC Days 2012 will be held at the AGH University of Science and Technology \(AGH-UST\) in Kraków, 10th-13th of December 2012.

The main purpose of the C-MAC Days is to provide comprehensive information on the most recent results achieved within the last year of the C-MAC Consortium and to discuss directions for future research.

Contributions will cover the field of complex metallic alloys and compounds ranging from basic to application oriented research:

- Development of new metallic alloys and compounds
- Materials for structural application
- Materials for thermoelectricity and magneto-calorimetry
- Materials for catalysis
- Coating technologies
- Complexity in periodic and aperiodic metallic alloys and compounds

Contributions related to gender mainstreaming in (materials) science will be also most welcome.

We look forward to meeting you in Kraków,

Aleksandra Czyska-Filemonowicz and Janusz Wolny

Venue

C-MAC Days 2012 will take place in Kraków, the former capital of Poland, a fascinating city of culture and science, regarded as one of the most beautiful places in Central Europe.

The C-MAC Days 2012 meetings will be held at the AGH University of Science and Technology \(Al. Mickiewicza 30, 30-059 Kraków\).

Lunches will be served at the meeting place.

Evening Gala Dinner will take place in the Benedictine Abbey in Tyniec, the oldest monastery in Poland. This exceptional place with almost a thousand year history and its exceptional monastery spirit will guarantee unforgettable memories of the C-MAC Days 2012 Evening Gala Dinner. The buses from Kraków to Tyniec and back (approx. 15 km) will be provided by the organizers free of charge.

Travel

Kraków is accessible by airplane, train or car.

- Kraków airport is linked with the city centre by train and three bus lines. More details on the airport access can be found here.
- Train connections: PKP.
- Local tram and bus connections: MPK Kraków.
- Local taxi: Radio Taxi 19191, Tel. +48 12 19191

Proceedings and abstracts

Participants will receive the abstracts booklet. All participants are welcome to present their recent accomplishments in the form of oral presentations or posters:

Abstracts should be submitted to the C-MAC Days secretary, Marta Lipińska-Chwałek at the following email address: CMACDays2012@gmail.com, by 31th October 2012.

The abstract template is available here.

An e-mail notification on the acceptance of the contributions and their form (oral or poster presentation) will be sent by 31th October 2012.

Please proceed with your REGISTRATION prior to the abstract submission.

Registration

Online registration is available on the conference web page under REGISTRATION card.

Registration deadline is 31th October 2012.

An e-mail confirmation message will be sent out to all registered participants.

For C-MAC Institutions:

Each C-MAC member institution is entitled to send 3 delegates for whom there will be no registration fee and accommodations (for three nights, from 10 to 13th December 2012) will be provided free of charge. PhD students may be asked to share a double room. Please follow the registration deadline in order to assure the availability of your accommodations.

Should any C-MAC institution wish to send more than 3 delegates, then the supplementary delegates will have to pay the registration fee (see below) and book their own accommodation.

Payment for non-C-MAC members and supplementary C-MAC delegates:

The registration fee for non-C-MAC members and supplementary C-MAC delegates (either staff or students) amounts to 150 €. This should be paid by bank transfer (see Bank account). The registration fee will cover all conference expenses except accommodations. Non-members must book and pay for accommodations themselves.

Please transfer the fee payment no later than the 15th November 2012 to the account of the AGH University of Science and Technology, International Centre of Electron Microscopy for Materials Science. Please consider that your bank's transactions charges must be covered by you (please contact your bank for detailed costs).
